

FEATURED IN THIS ASIA PACIFIC HOSPITALITY NEWSLETTER

- ▶ Oakwood Introduces Premier Brand In China
- ▶ St. Regis Debuts In Sanya
- ▶ SilverNeedle Relauches Constellation Hotel
- ▶ Refurbishment To Take Place At Singapore's Iconic Marriott Hotel
- ▶ Singapore Tourism Revenue Enjoys Strong Growth In First Half Of 2011
- ▶ Absolute Share Price Performance, As At 2 December

OAKWOOD INTRODUCES PREMIER BRAND IN CHINA

Return to Headlines

Oakwood Asia Pacific will be debuting its Oakwood Premier brand in China with the launch of the 225-key Oakwood Premier Guangzhou in the first quarter of 2012. Located in the Tianhe District city centre, the property will offer accommodation options ranging from studios to one-, two-, three- and four-bedroom apartments. Facilities will include a restaurant and bar, a fitness centre, meeting rooms, a business centre, a swimming pool, a sauna and Jacuzzi, an Angsana Spa by Banyan Tree, a children's play area and a residents' lounge. Oakwood Premier Guangzhou will be the second serviced apartment opened by Oakwood Asia Pacific in the capital of Guangdong Province. The first was Oakwood Gold Arch Residence Guangzhou on Er Sha Island.

ST. REGIS DEBUTS IN SANYA

Return to Headlines

Starwood's St. Regis Hotels & Resorts unit has announced the grand opening of the St. Regis Sanya Yalong Bay Resort, one of the most glamorous gathering spots in Sanya for travellers. The resort, which is South China's first St. Regis resort, is located