

Oakwood Properties Assists Post-Quake Reconstruction In Tokyo

Oakwood, the world's most trusted name in serviced apartments, is providing assistance in the reconstruction of Tokyo after the March 11 earthquake and tsunami.

It donated one of its apartments, Oakwood Residence Aoyama Tokyo, as habitat for the working staff of a humanitarian organization for free for a year.

It was a major action in the company's recent charity contributions. Oakwood has also offered a conference room in downtown Tokyo as the location for the organization to raise money.

For more information on its involvement in this action, please visit www.habitajp.org/enblog/2011/06/post_1.html.
