Oakwood Residence Hanoi opens on 10 October 2019

SINGAPORE – October 10, 2019 – Oakwood®, a wholly owned subsidiary of Mapletree Investments (“Mapletree”), today announced the official opening of Oakwood Residence Hanoi, marking the brand’s entry into Vietnam’s capital city.

A prime address for both business and leisure travellers alike, Oakwood Residence Hanoi is situated in an upscale residential neighbourhood within the West Lake (Tay Ho) District, offering a sanctuary away from the city’s bustle. A car ride away, guests can also easily access Ba Dinh District (the French Quarter) – home to government offices, embassies as well as some of the city’s best co-working spaces; and Hoan Kiem District (the Old Quarter) – Hanoi’s central business district and main tourist area. Relocating families will also delight in their proximity to Ciputra International City where a number of international schools are located.

“Oakwood Residence Hanoi is testament of our commitment to grow Oakwood’s presence in the country. Two years in the works, the team at Oakwood has been gearing up to this day – when we officially introduce Oakwood to the capital,” shared Dean Schreiber, interim chief executive officer of Oakwood and managing director of Oakwood Asia Pacific. Oakwood Residence Hanoi will be the brand’s third serviced residence in the country following the debut of Oakwood Apartments Ho Chi Minh City in December 2016 in Ho Chi Minh City’s District 3 and subsequent launch of Mapletree-owned Oakwood Residence Saigon in District 7 in April 2018.
