Situated within walking distance to Shin-Osaka Station - the gateway to Japan's Kansai region, Oakwood Hotel & Apartments Shin-Osaka caters to business and leisure travelers seeking short or long-term stays.

Designed to offer the most contemporary interiors matched with cutting-edge technology, the building comprises 126 fully furnished serviced apartments and 59 hotel-style rooms, along with traditional hotel amenities including concierge, front desk, regular housekeeping as well as an on-site gym.

"We are proud to launch our first property that is located outside of Tokyo in Shin-Osaka, a growing region in Japan with easy access to many major cities and business hubs. This is the newest addition to our growing portfolio of Oakwood-branded properties, complementing our broader business strategy to bring the Oakwood brand to more global markets," said Dean Schreiber, managing director of Oakwood Worldwide in Asia.
